Call to Order: Meeting was called to order at 5:03 p.m.

Public Comment:

Karen Armijo visited as a guest. She is a private chef and recently moved back to Lakewood where her mother lives.

Approval of Minutes:

Approval of minutes: Patti Belle moved to approve the minutes, Lani Neil seconded. MPU

New Business:

Linda McDermott expressed interested in serving another term as Chair. All members agreed they would like her to continue in that role. No other members were nominated or interested.

Earl Borgert was interested in the Vice Chair position. Kat nominated Earl for VP, Phil seconded.

Sally will distribute the application form so Karen can fill it out and others can forward it on to those who have interest in filling the two open positions. Phil said Hanford McCloud from the Nisqually Tribe showed interest but nothing has materialized.

Store Front Decoration Contest:

Nikki showed a power point with the entries and the commission voted with the following results:

Robis Camera Center: Winner

Lakeview light and power: second place

AA Meats: 3rd place

Adorned in grace: Honorable Mention

Drangsholt Orthodontics: Honorable Mention

It was decided to have a later deadline next year to give store owners a longer time to decorate. As a result the photos will not be put in the January edition of Connections Magazine. It also will not be tied to the Holiday Festival.

Holiday Festival Logistics:

Lani will get the Soup and Panera bread. Earl will get the donuts. Karen will volunteer in the court room or where needed.

Tod said his wife Crystal who is an Anthemist can sing and then we can have the Color Guard perform after the parade. Then after the tree lighting Crystal will sing a song with the crowd. Traditionally it has been We Wish You A Merry Christmas.

Sally and Linda will mark vendor spaces Friday.

2019 Work Plan

Lani motion to approve work plan, Patti Bell Seconded it. MPU
